‘Fahrenheit 451’ Comprehension

1) Character analysis: Mind-map five key quotations for each character listed below. You should interpret what these quotations show us about the characters, and how this links to key themes/issues present throughout the novel.
   Montag
   Millie
   Faber
   Beatty

2) Setting: List all the different places we experience in the novel. What is their impact on our understanding of characters, situations etc.? Link to key quotations and explore the connotations of different areas.

3) Key themes: Using the themes below, link key words to them and then evaluate what this demonstrates about the author’s attitude and how this impacts on the reader’s response.

4) What is the most effective moment in the text in terms of impacting on the audience? This could be a moral, hard-hitting scene, emotive response…You must justify your opinion and explore the issue using appropriate evidence – minimum half a page of A4.

‘Fahrenheit 451’ Work:

1) Character analysis: Mind-map five key quotations for each character listed below. You should interpret what these quotations show us about the characters, and how this links to key themes/issues present throughout the novel.
   Montag
   Millie
   Faber
   Beatty

2) Setting: List all the different places we experience in the novel. What is their impact on our understanding of characters, situations etc.? Link to key quotations and explore the connotations of different areas.

3) Key themes: Using the themes below, link key words to them and then evaluate what this demonstrates about the author’s attitude and how this impacts on the reader’s response.

4) What is the most effective moment in the text in terms of impacting on the audience? This could be a moral, hard-hitting scene, emotive response…You must justify your opinion and explore the issue using appropriate evidence – minimum half a page of A4.