

What's Happening, Macbeth?

Can you fill in the gaps to tell the story of Macbeth?

Three witches meet after a tremendous battle and declare they will meet when the "_____'s done" and when "_____'s lost and won" - all in order to meet _____.

King Duncan is talking to his men about the battle and finds out about a traitor. He tells his generals to tell Macbeth he is now _____, declaring that what the traitor lost "Macbeth _____".

Lady Macbeth hears about the witches' prophecies and is incredibly excited at the thought of being queen - she says the "_____ itself is hoarse" announcing Duncan's arrival to her "_____". Macbeth arrives and Lady Macbeth tries to stop him worrying by telling him to _____.

Macbeth and his friend, Banquo, run into _____ on their way back from battle. Macbeth is told that _____, whilst Banquo is told _____. As quickly as they appeared, the witches leave, and Macbeth says that he is afraid of acting "against the use of _____".

Macbeth meets the King and agrees for him to come to his castle for the night. The King announces his son, Malcolm is _____, and Macbeth asks the _____ to "hide their fires" in his ambition to be king.

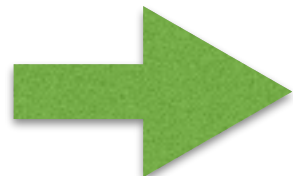

Duncan and Banquo arrive at Macbeth's home - Banquo is uneasy, but Duncan believes the castle has a "_____ seat". Lady Macbeth greets them, pretending to be _____ when really she is _____.

Macbeth's soliloquy tells us that the only thing spurring him on is "_____". He tells Lady Macbeth they "will proceed no further in this _____" and she accuses him of being _____, which convinces Macbeth to murder Duncan so they can rule Scotland.

Macbeth and Banquo talk - Macbeth lies and says "I think not of" the _____. Banquo leaves and Macbeth speaks alone, believing he sees a _____ before him, and debates the murder he will commit, finally announcing Duncan must either go to "_____".

Macduff visits and discovers the king, murdered in his bed. Macbeth covers his own tracks by _____, Lady Macbeth _____, and the king's sons (Malcolm and Donalbain) decide to _____.

Macbeth has done the deed but Lady Macbeth has to finish framing the guards to Duncan's room by _____. Both of their hands are now _____. Macbeth is frightened; he believes he will never be able to _____ or say _____.

The people believe Duncan was murdered by _____, his sons _____ and now Macbeth has it all: "king, Cawdor, Glamis, all". Macbeth is worried Banquo knows the truth, and plans to _____ in order to be "safely thus".

Macbeth worries that they have "scotch'd the _____, not killed it" in all the murders he and his wife have committed. Lady Macbeth consoles him and tells him to be _____ at their banquet tonight.

The Macbeths have a banquet to celebrate their coronation, where one of the murderers tells Macbeth Banquo is dead but his son escaped. Macbeth turns to see Banquo's ghost at the table, and screams "never _____. _____". Lady Macbeth pretends Macbeth is _____ to avoid people becoming suspicious.

The Lords are talking; they say that Macbeth is a _____. _____ and that Malcolm is the true King. _____ has gone to help Malcolm raise an army to fight Macbeth to return the "_____ country" to righteousness.

Macbeth's extreme concern has made him seek out the witches, whose boss name _____ has told them to keep toying with Macbeth. They show him three visions: _____
Needless to say he leaves feeling pleased.

Macbeth learns that _____ has fled to England, and to punish him Macbeth sends murderers to _____ _____, which they do ruthlessly; the murderers proclaim Macduff a "_____".

Meanwhile, Malcolm tests Macduff to see whether _____. Macduff proves himself; however, immediately afterwards Macduff learns that _____ have been murdered. Malcolm decides his "power is ready" and the time has come to reclaim his throne.

Lady Macbeth's guilt has finally caught up with her: she is now _____. The doctor says the "disease is _____. _____". She confesses to _____, but the doctor and gentlewoman know they can't say anything without Macbeth seeking vengeance.

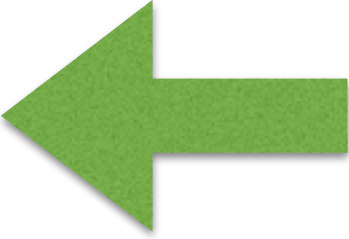

Rumours are everywhere! Or as the doctor says, “foul _____ are abroad.” Malcolm’s power is closing in on Scotland to reclaim it from Macbeth’s tyranny, everyone knows he has committed “secret _____” and they all believe Macbeth is either _____ or acting in “valiant fury”.

Bad news for Macbeth - Lady Macbeth has died, and her cause of death is _____. Macbeth simply states “she should have _____”. Worse news: a prophecy has come true, as _____ because Malcolm’s army have hidden themselves behind branches.

Macduff and Macbeth finally meet on the battlefield, and Macbeth remember the warning to “_____”. He laughs at Macduff, thinking he will win, until Macduff announces he was “from his _____”, he was born by caesarian and is therefore not of woman naturally born!

The battle is on! Macduff calls for “industrious _____” and Young Siward is the first to fall; as he battles he declares Macbeth’s name is more hateful to him than _____. Macbeth believes he is invincible, until...

The battle is over: Scotland is won! Macduff appears before Malcolm holding _____, and all men shout “Hail _____!” Scotland is, once again, a pure land free of tyranny.
